

Holly Page serves as Senior Advisor to No Labels. With a career that began as a fundraiser on the improbable 1992 Presidential campaign of Bill Clinton, Ms. Page has established herself as a trusted agent to advance the politics of the center. Her career highlights include the creation of the nonprofit Dog Tag Bakery in Georgetown, organizing Nobel Peace Prize Winner Kailash Satyarthi's First US tour, the creation of the first ever Presidential Online Town Hall and initiating what became the Presidential Leadership Scholars, a joint project of former US Presidents Clinton and Bush.

Fred Upton represented Michigan's 4th Congressional District from 1987-1993 and Michigan's 6th Congressional District from 1987-2023. He is a member of the Republican Party. He chaired the Committee on Energy and Commerce from 2010 onwards, overseeing key sectors such as energy, healthcare, environment, telecommunications, commerce, manufacturing, and trade. Before his congressional career, Upton worked in the office of Management and Budget under President Ronald Reagan.

Problem Solvers of NH

Mark McLaughlin is a science teacher from North Hampton, NH. He has been the de facto leader of No Labels Problem Solvers of NH since 2017. The group formed after attending the No Labels convention in Washington, DC in March 2017. The group helps to promote citizen education of the Problem Solvers Caucus, congressional bipartisanship efforts with legislation, and encourages elected officials to champion the 30 bipartisan common sense solutions for Americans.

Fast Facts about No Labels:

- 2010 No Labels was founded by Nancy Jacobson, an American political activist & former fundraiser for the Democratic Party.
- 2017 helped create the largest bipartisan caucus in the House of Representatives called Problem Solvers caucus which current NH Congressman Chris Pappas (D) joined this year.
- Over the last 3 years No Labels polled Americans about what they wanted for the country and the results helped form our 30 Bipartisan Common Sense Solutions we encourage our elected officials to champion and adopt.
- Co-Founders, Co-Chairs, & Team Members are a well rounded mixture of people from all political backgrounds. Visit NoLabels.org to see them listed for yourselves.
