

North Hampton Presidential Primary Tavern

What:	A civic activity where locals will meet and have civic and respectful discussions about what they think of the candidates. We get talked at enough and now we need to talk to each other.
When:	Wednesday, February 5 th from 6pm to 8pm
Where:	The Barley House, 43 Lafayette Rd. North Hampton
Format:	Candidate representatives may be available to answer questions from undecided voters who will participate in the discussion, talking civilly and listening. Everyone is invited to attend and there is no cost.
Rules:	Campaign literature can only be about that candidate. No negative material or non-candidate funded material. All discussions must be respectful and civil. No political signs allowed on or near the property.
Support	E-mail Steven B at steven@consumegov.com Information about other NH Presidential Primary Taverns at www.consumegov.com Event is made possible through the generosity of The Barley House

